Wiley publishes a wealth of content in politics, public administration, international relations and policy studies. Wiley proudly partners with 800+ prestigious societies representing more than two million members globally. We publish over 130 prestigious journals, and a rich books portfolio in association with the Wiley-Blackwell imprint on political science. From small societies and think tanks to large international associations, we work to produce series publications such as the Chatham House Papers, and the Global Political Hot Spots Series.
