Wiley is committed to publishing leading research in urban and regional studies. We publish journals on behalf of leading societies in the field, including the Foundation for Urban and Regional Studies, Urban Affairs Association, and the Community and Sociology Section of the American Sociological Association. Wiley publishes 4 journals ranked in the ISI Urban Studies category including the highly regarded International Journal of Urban and Regional Research – one of the most widely cited journals in the field, and the Journal of Urban Affairs. Our first class books program includes key urban studies text books written and edited by leading scholars as well as the high profile Studies in Urban and Social Change monograph series.
